CELEBRATE THE HOLIDAYS WITH 3RD ANNOUNCEMENT OF ACTS

Yuletide joy has never come in such a neat little fun package as NO YEARS boutique festival at Brisbane Powerhouse on December 31st, 2011 adds those purveyors of good times and festivities THE HOLIDAYS to the bill, alongside the moneymaking MILLIONS, fierce locals THE BELLIGERENTS and dreamy OLIVER TANK.

THE HOLIDAYS have cut a swathe across the globe, with stints in the USA and UK, playing Las Vegas with Cee Lo Green and The Ting Tings, as well as blowing away SXSW. In the UK their 7" 'Golden Sky' was given a big bear hug by Radio 1's Zan Lowe, added to the X-FM playlist and the BB6 playlist before playing The Great Escape Festival and Dot to Dot Festival. Their 'Post Paradise' was lauded in Australia, winning The Australian Music Prize Red Bull Award for Best Debut Album. Their last Brisbane show at the Zoo was SOLD OUT. They will be giving festive frolickers a reason to celebrate this New Years.

Brisbane band MILLIONS have been feeling like they won the lottery since they were handpicked by triple j unearthed to play the main stage at Splendour In The Grass. The garage-pop marvels have been hitting the road hard in the lead up to the release of their debut EP, 'Those Girls' in November. Their latest single 'Guru' has just been added to rotation on triple j, with five star reviews from triple j staffers. MILLIONS will make you feel like you're rolling in it at No Years.

Fiery locals THE BELLIGERENTS make things "Less Arty More Party" for New Year's Eve with their dance-disco-punk ethic. Having supported the likes of Metronomy, Neon Indian, Breakbot, Yacht Club DJs and many more, these pugnacious ruffians will get the dance floor throwing shapes.

OLIVER TANK's incredibly textural glitch pop has won him fans the world over – from XFM's Mary Ann Hobbs and BBC1's Jen Long to triple j tastemaker Zan Rowe. His combination of live instruments with computers to create heartfelt soundscapes won FBi Radio's Northern Lights Competition earning him a trip to Iceland to perform at Iceland's Airwave Festival as well as collaborate with local musicians. TANK's debut album "Dreams" will be released in mid-November. Be sure to have entered his headspace before 2012 rocks around.

THE HOLIDAYS, MILLIONS, THE BELLIGERENTS and OLIVER TANK join California babes, the DUM DUM GIRLS, as well JONTI, BALL PARK MUSIC, LAST DINOSAURS, NINA LAS VEGAS, THE JUNGLE GIANTS and CHARLIE MAYFAIR.
